

Facing the Challenge

Communities and Churches Responding to HIV/AIDS

A service at Lichfield Cathedral on the eve of World AIDS Day
Friday November 30th 2007, 7.30pm

All Welcome

Featuring:

An address by Dr Daleep Mukarji, Director of Christian Aid
Contributions by local schools and community groups

On the 29th and 30th November there will be an exhibition in the Cathedral featuring panels from the UK AIDS memorial quilt courteously loaned by the George House Trust and a display of powerful and moving images from the "Hands at Work in Africa" Charity. The exhibition will also feature artwork for World AIDS Day from local community groups

Meet the challenge in your community...

1st December is World AIDS Day when we remember the 40 million people living worldwide with HIV/AIDS including the hundreds who live here in our own communities in Staffordshire. You can get information and free downloadable resources to help you organise an event with your local school, church or community group at www.staffordshirebuddies.co.uk/wad

Organised by the AIDS Advocacy and Awareness Group (AAAG) in partnership with Lichfield Cathedral and local HIV/AIDS Charity Staffordshire Buddies
